

ASIA 3050 - 6050

From Angkor Wat to Rapa Nui: World Heritage in Asia and the Pacific

Dr Christian Reepmeyer

Ever visited an UNESCO World Heritage site and wanted to learn more about these amazing places? Here is your chance to learn how UNESCO works, who decides which sites are worthwhile, how to nominate a site to the World Heritage List. Come familiar with challenges and achievements in working with local communities promoting and managing sites! Specialists with long-term experience in World Heritage will share their knowledge about projects in Vanuatu, Tonga, Cambodia, Micronesia and Central Australia. For advanced students there will be the opportunity to accompany us in Tonga to learn first hand how the nomination process of cultural sites to the World Heritage List works in the Pacific.
